World Fuel Services Welcomes Four New Supplied Locations

October 6, 2020– HOUSTON – World Fuel Services announced new supplied locations, Fly Jet Center and Beach Aviation Services at KMYR, KCRE and KHYW. Fly Jet Center (KHON), Myrtle Beach International Airport (KMYR) and Grand Strand Airport (KCRE) will benefit from World Fuel products and programs, including World Fuel Contract, AVCARD® by World Fuel, World Fuel Rewards and avPOS credit card processing.

Fly Jet Center located in Huron, South Dakota is a great destination for quick turns and an ideal stop for hunting season. As a World Fuel supplied location, competitive fuel pricing for both Jet-A and 100LL is available. Aside from fuel, Fly Jet Center offers pilot services, rental cars, catering, heated hangar, ground handling and a private jet charter service through their ARGUS Platinum rated partner, Jet 60.

Matt Holtzen, President, Fly Jet Center: “Air travel has become ever more utilized as a primary means of transport, bringing business, people, and ideas to each other’s doorsteps. Our agreement with World Fuel Services will ensure our continued success.”

Beach Aviation Services’ three locations are only a few miles away from the beautiful coastline that is known as “The Grand Strand” in South Carolina which stretches 60 miles long. The two larger airports are Myrtle Beach International Airport (KMYR) and Grand Strand Airport (KCRE), and they offer complete aircraft services with NATA-certified staff. The smallest of the three airports, Conway-Horry County Airport (KHYW) offers a complete line of aircraft services with NATA-certified staff and is accessible to the growing business climate in South Carolina. Horry County Department of Airports, branded as Beach Aviation Services, solidifies World Fuel’s market share in the northeastern part of South Carolina.

Scott Van Moppes, A.A.E. Director of Airports, Beach Aviation Services, stated: “From our modern facilities to our dedicated team members, customers can expect a world-class experience when traveling through Beach Aviation Services. We look forward to our new relationship with World Fuel Services and the continued success of MYR and CRE as the premier general aviation gateway to coastal South Carolina.”

Steve Drzymalla, Senior VP for Business Aviation Bulk Fuel, World Fuel Services, stated: "These new locations will provide our flight department customers and cardholders with exceptional facilities and customer service for anyone traveling to these regions."

With World Fuel Rewards, all four of these locations are now able to provide even more to their customers. These facilities now have a bank of points to award to customers for fuel, services or loyalty. Any flight department, pilot, scheduler, dispatcher or crew member can earn rewards on transactions at these locations.
